As 2012 draws near, we are looking for warm-hearted Galileans to join our pool of church befrienders to welcome, guide and care for the visitors and guests in our midst.

No extraordinary qualifications are required - just someone who likes to share his/her testimony, share his/her joys of being a Christian/Galilean and sensitive to the needs of others.

Care-groups and fellowship groups (2 nominated members each) are highly encouraged to join the Befrienders' team. Take this opportunity to invite church visitors to join your group. Training will be provided.

4. SENIOR ADULTS' BIBLE STUDY AND FELLOWSHIP

New Series Commences

Lord's Day, 13 Nov 2011

Venue: Church Office Meeting Room

The Apostle Paul boldly told believers: "Do not conform any longer to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind" But how does that work on a day-to-day level? What does the Christian life look like when it is lived out both individually and in communities of faith? How can we be in the world but not of the world?

Go deeper, In the Word, In the faith, In your life. Let's study deeper into Scriptures with 7 sessions of video and Bible Study.

For more details, please contact:

SAF Facilitator: Elder Michael Tan
