Worship God As We Ought

Rev Ong Hock Khee, 11 April 2021

Beloved Brethren,
Greetings in the Precious Name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. The Call to Worship this present day is the same as it was in the Old Testament days. The Word of God teaches us what true Worship is and God's Perfect Plan for Worship.

Worship is, firstly, a command from God. Psalm 96:9 is one of many Bible verses calling the people of God to worship: "O worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness: fear before Him, all the earth". Such commands are to help us acknowledge God as our Creator and place us in our proper place – created beings give their Maker due honour and praises.

Worship is more than a command. It is man's response to a holy, awesome God. When the LORD revealed Himself in the Temple to Prophet Isaiah, we read that Isaiah was so awed by the holiness and glory of God that his heart responded in worship and submission. When the Apostle John saw the Resurrected and Ascended Christ Jesus at Patmos, he fell on his knees at the LORD's feet as though dead. Brethren, when we come into God's glorious Presence in Worship, there should be a heart response to Him, otherwise, we are merely going through the motions of Worship.

How blessed and uplifting it is when a congregation of worshippers come together on the LORD's Day in Corporate Worship. How it pleases the LORD as His people gather to wholeheartedly seek Him in prayer and praise, giving God due "Glory and honour and power" (Rev 4:11).

When the Samaritan woman at the well queried Jesus regarding the proper place of Worship, our LORD taught her – "God is a Spirit: and they that worship Him must worship Him in spirit and in truth" (Jn 4:24). It is not a matter of place, but is really a matter of the heart. The first Heaven-ordained characteristic of Worship is that we are to worship God in spirit.

"In spirit" should never be confused with an emotional display of fanfare, or even with the will or mind [though it does not preclude our mind – Rom 8:6 and 2 Tim 1:7].

Worship must go deeper to touch us at the inner being of our spirit and move beyond the surface and the superficial things that we do. The Acts of Worship connect the Spirit of God with our spirit – "The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God" (Rom 8:16). In Worship, we allow God's Spirit to use the Word of God to lead us to worship God in spirit and in truth.

Acts of Worship such as singing, praise, prayer, offering and sharing of testimonies bring us into union and communion with God in order that He may saturate our being and have His way with us. It is therefore important that we come early to church for Worship Service so that we can prepare our heart and quieten our spirit to seek the LORD before the Service begins. Worship in spirit is never self-seeking. It should be a glorious act of surrender and submission that allows us to focus on God, to delight in and praise God for Who He is.

Our Lord Jesus teaches us to worship God in truth. To do this, the people of God must be a people of the Bible. Our devotional Quiet Time with God is a blessed time of sweet communion with Him. We are to humble ourselves before God, enjoy His Holy Presence, meditate on His Word and pray: "Dear LORD, please reveal more of Yourself and Your purpose to me from Your Holy Word, and teach me more about Your Church, Your ways, and how we are to build each other up in the Most Holy Faith in Thyself. Thank You for Your amazing love, Your enabling power and abundant grace. Please help me to love and obey You more and more each day of my life. Amen"
