INSTALLATION OF PASTORS, ELDERS, DEACONS AND DEACONESES

1. Every congregation shall elect persons to the office of ruling Elder, and in ordinary circumstances to the office of Deacon and Deaconess, in whatever manner it may approve. In all cases the persons elected must be members in full communion in the church in which they are to exercise their office. Ruling Elders must be men.
2. When any person shall have been elected to any of these offices, and shall have declared his willingness to accept thereof, he shall be set apart in the following manner:
3. The Minister shall state, in a concise manner, the warrant and nature of the office of ruling Elder, Deacon or Deaconess together with the character proper to be sustained and the duties to be fulfilled by the officer-elect; having done this, he shall propose to the candidate, in the presence of the congregation, the following questions, viz:

| <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. Do you believe the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the Word of God, the only infallible and inerrant rule of faith and practice? b. Do you sincerely receive and adopt the Westminster Confession of Faith and Catechisms of this Church, as containing the system of doctrine taught in the Holy Scriptures? c. Do you approve of the government and discipline of Galilee B-P Church? |
|---|

- d. Do you accept the office of ruling Elder [or Deacon or Deaconess, as the case may be] in this congregation, and promise faithfully to perform all the duties thereof?
- e. Do you promise to uphold and keep the purity, peace, and unity of Galilee B-P Church?

The Elder, Deacon or Deaconess-elect, having answered these questions in the affirmative, the Minister shall address to the members of the Church the following questions, viz.:

Do you, the members of Galilee B-P Church, acknowledge and receive this brother/sister as a ruling Elder [or Deacon or Deaconess], and do you promise to yield him/her all that honour, encouragement and obedience in the Lord, to which his/her office, according to the Word of God, and the Constitution of this Church, entitles him/her?

1. The members of the Church having answered this question in the affirmative, by holding up their right hands, the Minister shall proceed to set apart the candidate, by prayer, to the office of ruling Elder [or Deacon or Deaconess as the case may be), and shall give to him/her and to the congregation, an exhortation suited to the occasion.
2. The office of ruling Elder is perpetual. But the offices of Deacon and Deaconess are not. However, all offices cannot be laid aside at pleasure. No person can be divested of either office but by deposition. Yet an Elder or Deacon or Deaconess may become, by age or infirmity, incapable of performing the duties of his/her office; or he/she may, though chargeable with neither heresy nor immorality, become unacceptable, in his/her official character, to a majority of the congregation to which he/she belongs. In either of these cases, he/she may, as often happens with respect to a Minister, cease to be an acting Elder, Deacon or Deaconess.
3. Whenever a ruling Elder, Deacon or Deaconess, from either of these causes, or from any other, not inferring crime, shall be incapable of serving the Church to edification, the Session shall take order on the subject, and state the fact, together with the reasons for it, on their records, provided always, that nothing of this kind shall be done without the concurrence of the individual in question, unless by a vote of the congregation.
4. If any particular church by a vote of members in full communion, shall prefer to elect ruling Elders, Deacons or Deaconesses for a limited time in the exercise of their functions, this may be done; provided, the full time be not less than three years, and the Session or board of Deacons be made to consist of three classes, one of which shall be elected every year; and provided, that Elders, once ordained, shall not be divested of the office when they are not re-elected, but shall be entitled to represent that particular church in the higher courts, when appointed by the Session or the Presbytery.

"SERVE THE LORD WITH GLADNESS"

Pastor Simon, Lord's Day, 1 August 2021

Brethren,
Greetings in the Name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ!

Thank God for enabling us to carry out the 19th General Elections in an orderly and efficient manner. Our gracious Lord revealed His will through His people to elect the Session for the next term of office. Thank God for the good participation and cooperation from church members. I see two things: Firstly, the members are taking the church's future seriously. Secondly, they are determined to encourage every candidate who stood for the new term of office. We thank Rev Dr Yap Beng Shin (former Pastor of Olivet BPC) and Elder Cho Kum Seng (Nazareth BPC) for being readily willing to serve as Election Supervisors. Thank God for our brothers Albert Ng (Returning Officer) and Gabriel Chia (Chief Counter) and their team who toiled with dedication in counting, collating, and finalizing the election results. Praise and thank God for all co-labourers for their commitment since the beginning of this election process.

The Psalmist exhorts God's people to "serve the LORD with gladness" (Ps 100:2). As I read Ps 100:2, three aspects surface in my mind: firstly, be Active in the Lord's work. Next, Right Attitude in the Lord's work. Lastly, the Heart's Condition in the Lord's work.

Active in the Lord's Work—God's people are to be always engaged in God's work. No retirement! If we are already serving, let's continue to serve Him fervently. Those who are yet to step in, delay no more, start right away. Survey the needs in the church and avail yourself accordingly with God-given abilities. Others who stopped serving for some reason, come back, let's get back to work. Never too late! What does "serving the Lord" mean? Possibly, some may see it as only doing church-related work. That's an incomplete concept. Our life belongs to the Lord, therefore, Christian's cannot dichotomise their life into sacred and secular. In God's service, it matters how we relate with our brethren in the church family, our loved ones at home, and how we conduct ourselves at workplaces. Some of us may be distressed by the "mechanics of operation" in the secular work environment, but, brethren, that's marketplace ministry. Your workplace is your mission field. We consider all opportunities as divine appointments to make Christ known.

Right Attitude in the Lord's Work! The starting point of our service for God is to remember who God is, who we are and whose we are. The Lord God Almighty is our Master and we are His privileged servants. We are unworthy servants but our Lord upholds us and finds delight in us (Is 42:1). Humility is the hallmark of His servants. When our Lord sent forth the 12 disciples into service, He reminded them: "The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant above his lord" (Matt 10:24). Next, servants of the Lord follow Jesus, their Master, faithfully. Jesus said: "If any man serves Me, let him follow Me; and where I am, there shall also My servant be: if any man serves me, him will my Father honour" (Jn 12:26). Devoted servants of the Lord are loyal to the Master at all costs, and they remain steadfast and faithful in service, under all circumstances.

Heart's Condition in the Lord's Work! The joy of the Lord is our strength (Neh 8:10). Our gladness in God's service does not depend on favourable men or promising circumstances. Our gladness builds up when we reflect on His daily goodness, kindness, graciousness, and mercies consistently given to us. How could we serve except with a heart overflowing with gratitude and joy? Yet, from past experiences, we know that setbacks, disappointments, and discouragements do come in us and affect us. We must not allow these negative experiences to undermine our faithful and effectively work for God. Do not let these bad encounters induce ideas that are inconsistent with our original determination to serve God. By His grace, in the light of Christ soon return, let's regularly search our hearts and calibrate our thoughts (Ps 139:23-24) to stay fervently serving our Lord Jesus Christ with gladness. Amen!

Precautionary Measures to Protect Religious Sector from COVID-19 Surge

In compliance to the latest MCCY advisory dated 19 July 2021 to Religious Sector, unvaccinated members especially the elderly are strongly advised to stay at home to attend online Services instead of coming to Church in person as much as possible during the next few weeks until the current covid19 situation improves.

It is also recommended that the elderly folks amongst our members to get vaccinated if you have not done so.
