THE POWER OF ENCOURAGEMENT

Preacher David Cher, Lord's Day, 23 January 2022

Beloved Brethren,
Greetings in the Precious Name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. As we continue to move forward in this year, we are surely reminded of God's sustaining grace that would continue to help us persevere and press on through whatever lies ahead of us (Phil. 1:6). This is important as our mere human strength and endurance would fail us at times as compared to God's unfailing power and strength (Isaiah 40:28-31).

In addition to our resolve and efforts to stand firm and strong in God, we would also need the spiritual community of our brothers and sisters-in-Christ to encourage, remind and prod us out of the pits of our physical, mental, emotional, and spiritual lows. This can happen when we are faced with trying and challenging situations and we become fixed and misguided toward a more negative mindset. The importance of being in a healthy community of believers is also highlighted in the different "one anothers" in the Bible such as loving one another (John 13:34,35; Romans 12:5-10), carrying one another's burdens (Gal. 6:2), serving one another (Gal. 5:13), encouraging one another (1 Thess. 5:11; Heb. 10:19-25), and praying for one another (James 5:16).

We are also stronger, more resilient, and more fruitful when we stand together as different and distinct parts of the Body of Christ (1 Cor. 12:12-27; 1 Peter 2:5-9). Eccl. 4:9-12 gives us this same word image of the difference in strength between single-strand, double-strand, and triple-strand ropes. The reality is that we, as followers of Christ, are not meant to walk in this world as lone rangers. We need to find our strength in standing and walking unitedly together in Christ.

I would encourage you to spare no effort in opening up your life to this spiritual community of encouragement right here in Galilee Church. As Heb. 10:25 says, we are not to develop a carefree and negligent attitude toward the communal coming together of the Body of Christ. It is important and needful. Thus, we should take notice and seek to benefit from every such opportunity whether in our corporate Worship Services, Sunday and Wednesday Bible Study and Prayer Groups, Church seminars and webinars, Fellowship Groups, and this year's setting up of the Small Support Groups (SSGs). All of these varied platforms are meant for us to come together so as to develop closer fellowship and bonds with one another and, at the same time, help one another to grow in our walk with God.

As we come together on these various platforms and with the variety of activities especially in the SSG meetups, let us have our constant focus on Christ (Heb. 3:1, 12:1-2) and the Word of God (Titus 1:9; 2 Tim. 4:2; 1 Thess. 3:2:11-13). As we do so, we would be cultivating and growing a Christ-centered community that has both a maturing and well-rounded love for God as well as for one another (Matt. 22:36-40). We can also encourage and motivate one another in God's kingdom work through the meaningful interaction and kind words that we say and share (Prov. 12:25; 16:24; 17:22; 25:11).

Let us, as we continue to step forward more and more into the year, not have our minds clouded by the future uncertainties and challenges but mutually encourage one another. Let us journey together, though many, but one in Christ (Romans 12:5). God bless!
