WALKING WITH JOY IN CHRIST

Preacher David Cher, Lord's Day, 13 Mar 2022

Beloved Brethren,
Greetings in the Precious Name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

We as followers of Christ may at times be distracted to find our happiness in the things of this world, such as our achievements, successes, goals, glories, and ambitions. But instead, we are reminded to find our joy in God and His Kingdom priorities. The Book of Philippians is well-known as the Book of Joy, with the words “joy” or “rejoice” being mentioned as many as 16 times throughout the whole book.

First of all, we are reminded of Phil. 3:5-6 not to base our identity and significance solely on our spiritual ancestry (Phil. 3:5a-b “Circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, an Hebrew of the Hebrews...”), and our spiritual achievements (Phil. 3:5c-6) “...as touching the law, a Pharisee; Concerning zeal, persecuting the church; touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless”). Instead, our focus should be on the true spiritual circumcision in Christ as compared to the physical circumcision as promoted by the Judaizers (Phil. 3:2-3).

Second, after sacrificing or giving up our precious physical possession, we fill that space with the precious Presence of Christ. The first aspect is to know Christ (Phil. 3:8, 10), which is not only about theoretical knowledge but also of experiential knowledge (true-life experiences) based on our close personal relationship with Him. All of our life experiences would not only be those of empowering and encouraging ones but also those of trials, persecution, suffering, and possibly death (Phil. 3:10 “That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death”). The second aspect is to be found in Christ (Phil. 3:9a). We belong to Christ when we walk in faith (Phil. 3:9b), trust, and dependence on Him. This is surely regardless of whether we are going through positive or negative situations (“the power of his resurrection.” “sufferings,” and “death,” as mentioned in the next verse 10). The third aspect is to lay hold on Christ (verse 12 “Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus”). Our hearts and minds are constantly captivated by Christ so that our love for Him would not run cold or lukewarm.

Third, we are to remain focused and persevere with Christ always in front of us as our encouragement and motivation. We must never think that we have arrived at spiritual perfection, and thus no more room to grow in our relationship with Christ (Phil. 3:12). In addition, we are not to look back and remain obsessed with our past (Phil. 3:13). This can be in the form of both past successes and past failures. Past successes, whether they are in the area of our personal, family, or even church ministry, can give us a false sense of security and satisfaction and result in us resting on our laurels. In contrast, past failures can discourage and paralyze us in thinking of and attempting new and great things for God in our personal, family, and church ministries. We think that we will surely fail rather than experience success in them.

Let us celebrate and rejoice in Christ Jesus! (Phil. 3:1 “Finally, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe).
