"O SING UNTO THE LORD A NEW SONG"

Pastor Simon N, Lord's Day, 3 April 2022

Brethren,
Greetings in the Name of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ! Since the COVID-19 lockdown, 3rd April 2020, Galileans have not lifted their voices in unison, praising God for His goodness and mercies on us. It was so hard to only sing in the heart for such a long time. The constraints have been stifling, but we persevered for the common good. As a nation, we have done well. Hence, the day has come for us to sing like before, though mask adorning is still required.

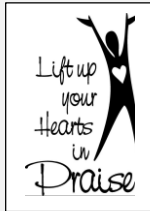

The psalmist exhorts the worshippers, "O sing unto the Lord a new song: sing unto the Lord, all the earth. Sing unto the Lord, bless His Name; shew forth His salvation from day to day. Declare His glory among the heathen, His wonders among all people. For the Lord is great, and greatly to be praised:" Ps 96:1-4.

"O sing unto the Lord...." Recall the numerous Sundays in worship service how our minds and hearts were disengaged by various distractions and occupations that disconnected singing—either not singing at all, or fiddling with something or figuring out the things in our minds. Otherwise, we follow on a pilot mode where the lyrics just run over our minds like water over the duck's back.

Nothing registers! Shouldn't we monitor such spiritual delinquency and return to the proper attitude in worship? Let us praise God actively, deliberately, and expressively for all His lovingkindness towards us.

Thank God for the dedication and devotion of our Praise and Worship Team. We appreciate the inconvenience of going for the pre-event COVID test in order to lead in singing. Each Lord's day, meditatively they selected hymns and songs and ministered across all age groups in worship. They have served well in leading the congregation in worship. Thank God for their faithfulness!

Next, the psalmist encourages worshippers to "sing unto the Lord a new song." We need to learn new hymns and songs to increase our repertoire of songs of praise, giving us a unique insight into a familiar truth or accurate portrayal and evaluation of our experiences. Hymns and spiritual songs are born out of one's adversity, victory, weakness, strength, incarceration and liberation. Under a particular situation, a very familiar hymn begins to resonate profoundly in one's soul. Even familiar hymns become very meaningful, curative, comforting, assuring and restorative.

Lastly, sing with a mission— "Sing unto the Lord, bless His Name; shew forth His salvation from day to day. Declare His glory among the heathen, His wonders among all people. Sing with a grateful attitude and remember His daily goodness and mercies. All that we are and we have is from our good and gracious Heavenly Father—James 1:17. We praise God intelligently, not just emotionally. "God is a Spirit: and they that worship Him must worship Him in spirit and in truth" Jhn 4:24. We praise God in worship intentionally and intelligently, not casually. "Inhale" the lyrics into our hearts and minds and "exhale" in praise. May our joyous praise of God also testify God's glory to our visitors and seekers present in our worship service. Our vibrant singing should vibrate in their ears even after leaving our place. God Bless!
