THE POWER OF ENCOURAGEMENT

Preacher David Cher, Lord's Day, 28 May 2023

Beloved Brethren,
Greetings in the Precious Name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. We as followers are not meant to live as loners but travel together as a community of faith on our pilgrimage on this Earth. We are meant to encourage and build up one another (1 Thess. 5:11). The importance of encouragement is that we can encourage others as well as be encouraged by others too.

To be able to encourage others, we must first have our steadfast hope in Christ (Heb. 10:23-24 "Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for He is faithful that promised;) And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works"). This steadfastness of our faith must be lasting through seasons and times of our lives, especially those difficult and trying ones. We should not only relate to God, worship and serve Him when circumstances are pleasant or profitable. At the very first sign of trouble, we are tempted to leave or forsake Him when things go astray or not going according to our plans and directions. Instead, we are to be always trusting and relying on Him (Job 13:15a "Though he slay me, yet will I trust in Him..."; Proverbs 3:5-6 "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct thy paths.")

We are given the example of the 5 wives of the missionaries who struggled emotionally and mentally when they heard the news of the murders of their husbands by the Auca Indians whom they were trying to reach and save with the Gospel. The 5 wives acknowledged that God had not prevented their husbands' plane from taking off on that fateful Tuesday morning. Even though they went through the inner turmoil of anger, sorrow and not understanding why it happened, they learned to commit in their hearts that it was part of God's plan and His providence (Romans 8:28 "And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose"). 2 of the wives, Rachel Saint and Elisabeth Elliot eventually went to live with this Indian tribe, and through their intense love for the Auca Indians were instrumental in their coming to faith in Jesus Christ.

We are then also to minister to one another in the different seasons of our lives, especially the storms of life, helping them to develop a deeper knowledge and truer experience of who God is in their lives. We must love and stick to one another for and through all times (Prov. 18:24 "A man that hath friends must shew himself friendly; and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother"; Prov. 17:17 "A friend loveth at all times, and a brother is born for adversity"). We can then realise our spiritual spots and get back on track with God's path of righteousness for our lives (Prov. 3:5-6 "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct thy paths").

Let us have our confidence in God to guide us through life as what the second stanza of the hymn "Trust and Obey" says:

Not a shadow can rise, not a cloud in the skies,
but His smile quickly drives it away;
not a doubt or a fear, not a sigh or a tear,
can abide while we trust and obey.

Chorus:

Trust and obey, for there's no other way to be happy in Jesus, but to trust and obey.
