Serve Gladly!

Pastor Simon, Lord's Day, 1 November 2026

Brethren,

Greetings in the Name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ! As another year draws to a close, it is fitting for us to pause and prayerfully reflect on how the Lord has led us and how we have spent the days He has graciously given. As we consider the year ahead, we may make many plans and resolutions, but above all, let us seek the Lord's direction and renew our commitment to Him. It is my heartfelt prayer that, as we enter the coming year, each of us will prayerfully seek a place of service in the church and offer ourselves to the Lord faithfully, joyfully, and wholeheartedly.

The Psalmist lovingly exhorts the people of God to "serve the LORD with gladness" (Ps 100:2). This begins with a deliberate resolve and an unwavering commitment to serve Him through every season of life. Yet we know that such service is not always easy. The pressures of life, competing demands, and shifting priorities can leave us weary and rob us of the joy of ministry. Some may feel close to burning out, while others may have quietly withdrawn from the Lord's work. To those who are serving, the Psalmist encourages us to press on; to those who have stepped aside, he graciously calls us to return. As God's people, "the sheep of His pasture," let us come before Him with willing hearts, remembering whom we serve and offering all that we do with joy and thanksgiving.

Our service to the Lord is not confined to the work of the church. Wherever the Lord has placed us, and in whatever responsibilities He has entrusted to us, we are called to live as His faithful servants. The Christian life cannot be divided neatly into the sacred and the secular, for every part of life belongs to God. Scripture reminds us, "Whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God" (1 Cor 10:31). Therefore, whether we are studying at school, labouring in the workplace, serving our community, caring for our families, or participating in church ministry, we may honour the Lord by carrying out each duty faithfully, lovingly, and for His glory.

We must also serve God with the right attitude—an attitude of humility. True service begins when we remember who God is and who we are before Him. The Lord God Almighty is our gracious Master, and we belong wholly to Him as His servants. Although Scripture teaches us to regard ourselves as unworthy servants, it also assures us that the Lord lovingly upholds His own and delights in them: "Behold My servant, whom I uphold; Mine elect, in whom My soul delighteth…" (Isa 42:1). Humility, therefore, is indispensable in the Lord's service. We do not serve to exalt ourselves or seek the praise of others, but to honour the One who has called us. As our Lord reminded the twelve disciples, "The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant above his lord" (Matt 10:24). May we serve Him with grateful hearts, depending upon His grace and giving Him all the glory.

Faithful servants follow Jesus, their Master. He said, "If any man serve Me, let him follow Me; and where I am, there shall also My servant be: if any man serve Me, him will My Father honour" (Jn 12:26). Therefore, let us remain devoted to Christ, steadfastly serving Him in every circumstance.

Finally, "the joy of the LORD is your strength" (Neh 8:10). Let us serve Him gladly rather than from compulsion. Ministry can be tiring, and discouraging words or a lack of appreciation may diminish our joy. If our hearts become troubled, even simple duties can feel burdensome. Our gladness, however, must rest not on people or circumstances, but on the Lord Himself. We fix our hearts on Him and serve Him wholeheartedly.

Let us constantly search our hearts before our Lord (Ps 139:23) and pray to God to re-calibrate them right, so that we may serve Him always, and with gladness. God Bless!
