“Blessed Children’s Day”

Pastor Simon, Lord’s Day, 4 October 2026

Brethren,
Greetings in the Name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. In recent times, several of our young couples have joyfully welcomed their first child, while other young parents have been blessed with their second or third. Truly, children are precious gifts from our gracious heavenly Father. Praise the Lord! As a church family, we warmly welcome these newborn babies and rejoice together with their parents and grandparents, giving thanks to God for His goodness and grace.

In Gen 33:5, Jacob spoke of his children as those God had “graciously given” to him. Likewise, Joseph told his father Jacob “these are the sons God has given me (Gen 48:9). The Psalmist also proclaimed, “Lo, children are an heritage or gift of the LORD: and the fruit of the womb is His reward” (Ps 127:3). Truly, our children are precious gifts entrusted to us by God’s gracious hand. With these gifts, the Lord has entrusted us with the sacred privilege and responsibility of shaping their lives to reflect the image of Christ and nurturing them to become responsible citizens of society. As the well-known saying reminds us, “As the home goes, so goes the nation.”

Hence, from their earliest years, we are called to teach our children God’s Word diligently and plant its truths deeply in their hearts and minds (Deut 6:4–9). Biblical parenting is demanding yet deeply rewarding. We must therefore press on faithfully, trusting God for wisdom, strength, and grace. Our children are growing up in a world that continually challenges Christian values and scriptural truth. It is therefore essential that we teach them, patiently counsel and guide them, explain the challenges they may face through our personal testimonies, and show them by our example how to walk in the way of the Lord. Spend time with them each day and engage them in frequent, meaningful conversations so that you can understand what is happening in their world. Be their friend and guide, not merely their policeman!

Parents, bringing up our children in the Lord is Christian stewardship. We cannot depend on the school, the government, the entertainment industry or anyone else to do our work for us. Ps 127:4 tells us: “As arrows are in the hand of a mighty man, so are the children of the youth.” Our children are like arrows. Until we release them as adults, we must spend time polishing, sharpening and straightening them. One day, we will have to release that arrow, and if we want it to hit the mark in the direction of God’s Will, we parents must work at shaping it properly!

Our Lord Jesus lovingly invites the little children to come to Him, “for of such is the kingdom of heaven” (Mt 19:14; Mk 10:14). As parents, we must lead our children to Christ and catechise them to seek and obey His will from their earliest years. First, we need to set our priorities aright. Our children need to understand that knowing Jesus Christ as their Saviour is far more important than success in sports, music, dance, swimming, or even academic studies. Children today are growing up in a world very different from the one many of us knew. Much of the innocent play and simple recreation of earlier years has been displaced by television, mobile phones, tablets, digital devices, and social media. Worldly music and unwholesome films may also expose young hearts and minds to distorted values and harmful compromises. Parents, should this not deeply concern us? In many homes, both parents must work, and fathers may be absent or simply too busy to spend meaningful time with their children. Yet our calling remains: we must take biblical parenting seriously and, with God’s help, make time to nurture, guide, and disciple the children He has entrusted to us. In Prov 22:6, “Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it. The Church family in Galilee will stand with and support you in this divinely appointed parental task. Congratulations to our young parents and parents-soon-to-be!

God bless!
