Can't Wait?

Pastor Simon, Lord's Day, 15 November 2026

Brethren,

Greetings in the Name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ! These days, waiting rarely comes easily to us. In our fast-moving world, we have grown accustomed to quick answers and immediate solutions. Whether we are standing in line at the bank, waiting for clearance at the Customs Checkpoint, or queuing for a packet of our favourite noodles, we can soon feel our patience wearing thin. We recognise this impatience in our own hearts. In a society that prizes speed and instant results, the same restlessness can quietly find its way into our spiritual lives. Yet amid the hurry, the Bible gently and repeatedly calls us to wait patiently on God.

Waiting on God is more than bringing our requests to Him in prayer; it is continuing to trust Him after we have prayed. As we lay our needs and heartaches before His throne of grace, we rest in His abiding presence. Our Saviour hears us, and we can trust Him to answer according to His perfect will and in His own good time. We may not always know what to ask for, but our heavenly Father knows what is best for us. The Psalmist exhorts: "Trust in Him [God] at all times; ye people, pour out your heart before Him: God is a refuge for us" (Ps 62:8). His answer may be "Yes", "No" or "Wait". Whatever His answer, let us remain close to Him, seeking His guidance and walking in His ways. "Truly my soul waiteth upon God: from Him cometh my salvation. My soul, wait thou only upon God; for my expectation is from Him" (Ps 62:1,5).

Waiting on the Lord is not passive. When anxiety or weariness tempts us to take matters into our own hands, let us find reassurance in God's Holy Word. "I wait for the LORD, my soul doth wait, and in His Word do I hope" (Ps 130:5). As we wait, we can draw closer to Him by reading His Word daily, studying it prayerfully and trusting its promises. His Word is sure: it guides us through difficulties, counsels us in uncertainty, warns us of danger and comforts us in distress. When we grow weary, it helps us turn our eyes to Him and lights the way ahead. "Thy Word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path" (Ps 119:105). May we not merely read His Word but let its truth shape how we live.

Waiting on God does not mean we must set aside our service for Him. Zacharias continued to serve the Lord into his old age while waiting for an answer to his prayer for a child (Lk 1:5-14). David, too, knew the weariness of waiting on God (Ps 69:3), yet even in his trials he lifted his heart to the Lord in song. His psalms continue to give voice to both our sorrows and our hope. Servants of God through the ages have likewise known nights of prayer and tears yet have found fresh strength and gladness as they ministered to others. We need not pretend that waiting is easy. We may bring our weariness honestly to the Lord and trust Him for the strength to take the next faithful step. As we wait, let us continue to love, serve and encourage those He has placed around us. Our hope is in the Lord God Almighty.

Brethren, having committed our burdens to the Lord, let us wait on Him prayerfully and patiently. Perhaps you have been praying for a loved one's salvation, longing for someone dear to you to change his or her ways or seeking relief from illness. Perhaps a difficult situation at home or at work has left you discouraged, and you wonder whether your prayers have been heard. Be assured you are not forgotten. Bring yourselves in prayer before our loving Father in Heaven for He hears our prayers and cares for us tenderly. Remember the precious picture encapsules His care: we are "the apple of His eye" (Zech 2:8). Even when the way ahead remains uncertain, you need not walk it alone. Stay close to Him and His Word each day. "Wait on the LORD"! God Bless!
